What's New? 11th July 24

Enfield Advisory Service for Autism

The Enfield Advisory Service for Autism (EASA) supports autistic children and young people (from 0-25 years) and their families.

Book now for their next Cuppa and Chat session 9.30 to 11 am at Russet House School, on Thursday 18th July – a celebration event for parents of children and young people of all ages.

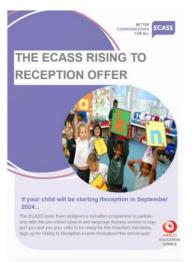

Additionally, they are running a summer holidays playground session at Russet House School on Thursday 15th August 10 am to 2 pm (there is another session on 8th August but this is now fully booked). There are only a few places still available so don't delay!

Details and booking links for all these sessions here.

Starting primary school: online workshop with ECASS

The 'Rising to Reception' programme is run by the Enfield Communication Advisory Support Service (ECASS) and is aimed at the families of children with communication difficulties who are due to start primary school in September 2024 (i.e. born between 1st September 2019 and 31st August 2020).

Children with communication difficulties can find transitions to new settings challenging, so this series of events aims to help you prepare your child.

The last of this year's Rising to Reception online workshops will be next Wednesday 17th July. This is an opportunity to meet a teacher from a local school in Enfield who will talk to you about your child's first year at school.

You can register for this session using the link in the booklet here.

There are also presentations from previous sessions available on the website  $\underline{here.}$

If you have any queries, please contact the ECASS team at:

RisingtoReception@enfield.gov.uk

Autism Central: events from the London Autism Hub

The London Autism Central Hub offers guidance to families, carers and personal assistants of autistic people. This includes opportunities to book one-to-one appointments and a range of different workshops. You can see details and booking links here. The next online sessions for parents and carers during July and August are:

- Supporting Play why play is important and tips and ideas for play with your child –Wednesday 7th August 10 am to 12 pm)
- Transition to Adulthood planning for post-school options Tuesday 16th July 7 9 pm
- Understanding Sensory Processing Thursday 18th July 10 am to 12 pm (repeated Friday 9th August 10 am to 12 pm)
- Understanding overwhelm, meltdowns and shutdowns Friday 26th July 7 9 pm (repeated Tuesday 6th August 7-9 pm)
- Supporting Siblings and young carers understanding how to support siblings and young carers Tuesday
  23rd July Wednesday 21st August 10 am to 12 pm

'Discover More Support' tool from Family Fund

National charity Family Fund have launched a new 'Discover more support' search tool on their website. It can help you more easily find services best suited to you and your family.

Featuring topics like money and benefits, mental health and wellbeing, education and learning and disability, you can now browse through 130 trusted organisations listed on the new search tool – to find available support services in your local area, or nationally. To use the tool and find out more, head to Family Fund's website.

Discover Digital Festival from Family Fund

Family Fund are running their free annual online Discover Digital summer festival. Starting Tuesday 30 July, registrations are now open. Tailored to disabled and seriously ill children and young people and their families, the festival offers friendly online sessions where you can learn new skills and socialise during the summer holidays.

With workshops ranging from exploring how to create fun animations, to making a vlog and mastering the power of coding, families can book on as many sessions as they like. To register and find out more details including the full line up of workshops, head to Family Fund's website: www.familyfund.org.uk/discoverdigitalfestival

Have your say: Personal Independence Payments

A consultation on changes to the disability benefit Personal Independence Payment (PIP) closes on Tuesday 23 July.

PIP is a non-means-tested benefit that helps with the extra costs of disability for people aged 16 to pension age. PIP replaces Disability Living Allowance (DLA) for children when they turn 16 in England, Northern Ireland and Wales. In Scotland, Adult Disability Payment is replacing PIP.

The Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) has set out options for reforming PIP in England and Wales. The green paper Modernising Support for Independent Living includes:

- Redesigning assessments to target disabled people and people with a formal diagnosis.
- Making assessments more linked to a person's condition.
- Moving away from a fixed-cash benefit system to vouchers or payments based on people submitting receipts for expenditure.
- Placing more responsibility on local services to better meet disabled people's needs.

Contact (the Charity for families with disabled children) say that they are worried that a desire to make spending cuts could have a serious impact on disabled young people.

You can respond to the consultation by completing an online form or email consultation.modernisingsupport@DWP.GOV.UK if:

- You would like to respond via email.
- You have any other enquiries specifically relating to this consultation.

The consultation closes on Tuesday 23 July.
