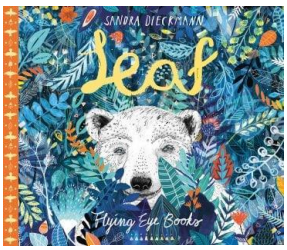
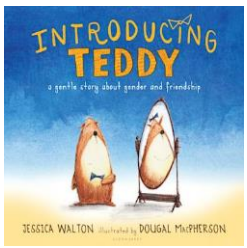
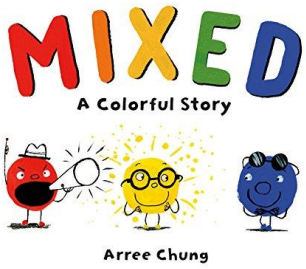
Eversley Primary School– Knowledge Organiser

PSHE	Relationship Education	Year 6	Autumn 1

Key Knowledge
Different types of relationships	• What relationships exist • How relationships can change over time
Forming positive relationships	• How to identify healthy and unhealthy relationships • Where and how to get support with relationships
Love and different families	• That there are many different types of family • That all families and family types should be respected • How families, regardless of appearance should all show and share the same values
Discrimination, stereotypes and the media	• What the word 'discrimination' means • The different ways people in society are discriminated against • The protected characteristics included in the Equality Act 2010 and what this means • How the media can influence our views and opinions of others
Respect and equality	• How we can use the Equality Act to inform our behaviours • How all differences need to be respected • That some disrespectful behaviours can be considered a crime







Statutory requirements

- The characteristics of healthy family life.
- That others' families, either in school or in the wider world, sometimes look different from their family, but that they should respect those differences and know that other children's families are also characterised by love and care.
- How to recognise if any relationship is making them feel unhappy or unsafe, and practical steps they can take in a range of different contexts to improve or support respectful relationships.
- How important friendships are in making us feel happy and secure.
- The importance of respecting others, even when they are very different from them.

Key vocabulary

Spelling	Definition
Values	Things people see as important in the way they live their lives
Discrimination	When someone is treated differently or unfairly because of things such as your age, gender, religion, race, disability etc.
Equality	Recognising and responding fairly to the individual needs and identities of all others
Equality Act	A law that protects people from discrimination, harassment and victimisation
Protected characteristics	The characteristics listed within the Equality Act
Media	The different ways information gets passed to many people in society
Hate crime	A criminal offence which is perceived by the victim or any other person, to be motivated by hostility or prejudice

Books

Arree Chung	Mixed
Jessica Walton	Introducing Teddy
Sandra Dieckmann	Leaf