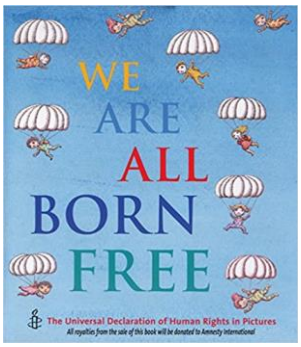
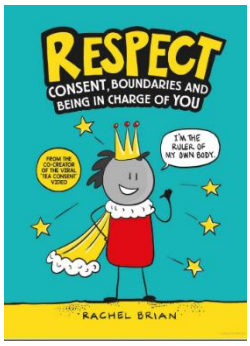
Eversley Primary School– Knowledge Organiser

PSHE	Relationship Education	Year 6	Autumn 2

Key Knowledge

Managing conflict	• Conflicts are common within all types of relationships • There are many different ways to manage and resolve a conflict. It is important that the actions after a conflict are appropriate and help improve the situation
Authority and the law	• The Declaration of Human Rights outlines the rights that all people have • Some of the statements are: - Everyone has a right to life and to live in freedom and safety - Everyone has a right to be protected by the law • We are all bound by the laws of the country we live in the police are there to enforce the law • There is a strict law around sexual harassment – this includes unwanted touch, comments and the sharing of images
Peer pressure	• We can receive lots of different pressure from our peers that makes us feel like we should behave in certain ways • Social media can have a huge influence on our actions • If children are concerned our worried about peer pressure, gang influences or radicalisation, there are many agencies they could use such as NSPCC and childline
Anti-Bullying	• If we witness bullying, we should actively try and stop it and help the victim.





Statutory requirements

- How to recognise who to trust and who not to trust, how to judge when a friendship is making them feel unhappy or uncomfortable, managing conflict, how to manage these situations and how to seek help or advice from others, if needed.
- What a stereotype is, and how stereotypes can be unfair, negative or destructive.
- The rules and principles for keeping safe online, how to recognise risks, harmful content and contact, and how to report them.
- Different types of bullying and responsibilities of bystanders.
- That in school and in wider society they can expect to be treated with respect by others, and that in turn they should show due respect to others, including those in positions of authority
- How to ask for advice or help for themselves or others.

Key vocabulary

Spelling	Definition
Authority	A person who has the right or power to make decisions and command others.
Law	A rule made by the government that tells people what they can and cannot do in the country
Human Rights	The basic rights and freedoms that belong to every person in the world, from birth until death.
Protection	The act of keeping something safe from harm
Social Media	Different programs/apps/websites that allow people to upload and share content with others
Gangs	A group of people who share a common identity and commit crimes together
Radicalisation	When a person comes to support terrorism and extremist ideologies.

Books

Amnesty International	We are all born free
Rachel Brian	Respect, consent, boundaries and being charge of you