don't you agree? I think this because Scottish called Toothless a

Fireworm was angry and because she was so short-tempered called him a liar and Hiccup started the entire fight. So you see it was probably Scottish and Fireworm. Although this is what I think but really you really wouldn't want to excite your son? Anyone but your son?!
As well as this, Scottish has a Monstrous Nightmare and only the Chief's son can have one. He's not the Chief's son! In fact, all the other boys were trying to persuade him to give it to Hiccup but alas! Scottish didn't listen. Don't you think you should send 1 boy and his dragon, not 10 boys and their dragons!?
In conclusion to this, I think maybe you should send Fireworm and Toothless away together for at least a months then take the dragons back to their nursery and make Scottish and Hiccup take the initiation test again (just them) I would be very happy if

Dear Sir/Madam,

My name is Mr. Thomas Oakley. I live in the country -side and am retired. This letter is to request custody over William Beech. Reacently, William stayed with me for about six months. I will also be informin -g you about the terrible things that have happened to Willian.

I have an estate in the countryside and have dog. When William first came to me as an evacuee he was covered head to toe in bruises and sores. I healed him to the best of my ability and comforted him whenever he needed to be comforted. He has really grown a bond with me and I beli -eve that if the boy had to choose between me or his mother he would choose me. I have given William support and I have given him a sense and understanding of what is around him. William has really stived in Little Wierwold le -arning and making friendships. All Im offering is that I believe to be the best future for William.

Back in Deptford Williams life was tuff. He was constantly being bullied and was even being ab -used by his own mother! He never got to do an -ything fun and he was struggling to learn beca -use no body liked him. Not even his own teachers. If anything I would not want William to go back to that. I strongly feel that William will have a much brighter future in my care.

Mrs Beech is unhumane person unfit for the job of parenting. William has stived in Little Wierwolf being able to learn and as even do some extra curriculan activities such a drama and art. He has grow friendships wich may last for ages. It would just be cruel to rip him apar -t from all this. He has recovered well since last time him and his mother were together. But no one on this earth deserves such a cruel fate like the one that his mother gave to him. Recent -ly he was locked up in a closet with his new born baby sister. Those were awfull times but in my care William will flurish to be a bright intellegent child.

To conclude, Williams mother should not parent William any longer. I expect that within a week you write back saying I can adopt William. I trust that you will make the right choice.
To Whom it may concern,
Tom Oak
